

How to upload your slides (pptx and or pdf) through the “Abstract submission” page on the Fusetnet PhD Event website.

Enter the website with your Indico account

Go to the page “Abstract submission” where you will find the abstract that you have submitted and which has been accepted.

Open the link to your contribution and click on “go to contribution”

In "Editing" you can upload the ppt and pdf file of your slides

The screenshot shows a web interface for editing an event. On the left is a navigation menu with items: Overview, How to participate, Key dates, Call for Abstracts, Keynote speakers, Provisional Program, Social Program, Posters and PechaKucha, Venue, Accommodation, Lunch, Travel, and Flyer. The 'Contact' section is highlighted in blue, showing an email address: fusenet_phd_events@igi... The main content area is titled 'test' and includes a 'PechaKucha' badge. It lists event details: 'Not scheduled', '20m', and 'Orto Botanico, Padova - Italy'. Below this are sections for 'Description', 'Primary author' (with a person icon), and 'Presentation materials' (with a document icon). A message states 'There are no materials yet.' The 'Editing' section features a large grey button with a red arrow pointing to it, and a 'Go to timeline' link. The 'Proceedings' section has a 'Slides' sub-section with a file upload icon and a text input field.
